Will Receive Attention

Last Tuesday a deputation comprising Reeve Chamberlain, Councillors Wheeler and Groves, and Sec. Gardiner, of M. D. Bow Valley; Secretary Hinds, of Shepard, and Secretary Pat of Grasswold, met with the Attorney-General and Deputy Minister of Public Works, with reference to the straightening of bridges over irrigation ditches and canals.

Hail Insurance Rate Seven Per Cent.

The rate for hail insurance for 1925 was set at 7 per cent. at a meeting of the Directors of the Alberta Hail Insurance Board, held in Calgary Tuesday and Wednesday.

Twenty-five per cent. more business was written by the Alberta Hail Insurance Board in 1925, than during the previous year.

A total risk of nearly $11,000,000 was made up as follows: 105,238 acres insured at $6.00 per acre; 69,257 acres insured at $4.00 per acre; and $69,984 acres at $10.00 per acre.

Officers of the hail board stated that the year just passed had been an average season, the loss being slightly greater than last year, but considerably less than in 1923.

It is estimated that the total awards will be about $680,000.

Most disastrous hail storms took place on July 1, 4, and 6, and August 5. On July 1, 13 municipal districts were struck by hail; on July 4, three districts were affected, seven districts were hailed on July 6, and 25 districts were affected on August 3.

BIG SUGAR BEET CROP

Harvesting of Alberta's first sugar beet crop on the irrigated district is well on in the south for the new sugar beet factory at Raymond is commencing. The crop is a large one, and is expected to average 15 or 16 tons to the acre throughout the district, which will give a total harvest of more than 100,000 tons. The factory at Raymond will open for operations shortly. Some farmers expect to get as high as 25 tons of beets to the acre.

Election News

Liberals of the Bow River riding, meeting at Calgary yesterday, nominated Jesse Gouge, Drumheller coal operator, as the candidate for the forthcoming election. Conservatives met to-morrow (Thursday) to nominate a candidate. E. F. Purcell, Brooks, is mentioned as a probability. The Progressive Convention will not be held till October 1. Mr. E. J. Garland, the present member, will probably be nominated. He is on his way back from Ireland, and is not expected home till the day previous to the convention.

The boundaries of Bow River constituency are described as follows:

Consisting of Townships 13 to 22 inclusive, in ranges 17 to 24 inclusive, West of the 4th Meridian; those portions of Townships 23 to 30 inclusive, in ranges 17 to 27 inclusive, West of the 4th Meridian, lying to the South and West of Red Deer River, and extending to the left bank thereof, together with those portions of townships 25 and 29 in ranges 19, 20, and 21, West of the 4th Meridian, lying North of Red Deer River.

This includes the following towns and villages, besides a large number of small points: Drumheller, Rosedale, Wayne, Carbon, Betsker, Irricana, Langdon, Strathmore, Rockford, Rosebud, Standard, Vulcan, Champion, Carmanay, Lomond. A small strip of territory between Carlsland and the Bow River is in the Macleod constituency.

Fred Davis Nominated

Conservative last week nominated Fred Davis, ex-M. L. A. farmer near Irricana, as their candidate for election. The Liberal candidate is W. M. Davidson, editor of the Abertan, and the Labour candidate is Wm. Irvine, the present member.

Mr. Davis is well-known locally, having represented Gleichen riding in the provincial assembly for several years. He was a good member, and will command a large following, though East Calgary is now very largely an urban seat, the rural part of the constituency having been much restricted.

Jesse Gouge Is Liberal Nominee

Unanimous Choice of Convention Held Yesterday.

Jesse Gouge, prominent coal operator of Drumheller, was the unanimous choice of a convention of Bow River Liberals, held in Calgary yesterday afternoon.

In his declaration Mr. Gouge expressed himself in favour of economical administration, reduction in taxes, sound immigration and transportation policies, modernization of Senate, and abolition of short selling on the Grain Exchange.

Hon. Chas. Stewart, Minister of the Interior, delivered a telling address at the convention.

Light For Strathmore?

Town Will Erect Some Storm Lanterns On Streets.

After discussing for several years Bessano Main lighting, Spray Lakes lighting, and various other expedients, the Town Council came to the decision that for the present they would erect storm lanterns at strategic points in the town to guide the weary wayfarer on his or her way this winter. The estimated cost is around $200.

At the same meeting, held Tuesday evening, the Council passed an account for over $500 as legal charges in connection with the C.P.R. appeals on assessment, etc., and for various taxes and suits for collection of taxes. This goes to show that at this time anyway, legal lights are more expensive than street lights, and sometimes not as illuminating.

Councillor Bailey's account for $85.50 which had been held over for some time, was paid at this meeting. Councillor Keeling dissenting. Councillor Keeling also objected to coal being supplied to the Town Hall without tendering, and an account for coal was held back to see if a reduction on the price could be obtained.

No Threshing Yet

But Resuming Today.

Last week was one of the wettest ever recorded in September with the result that threshing was again held up. Good weather has prevailed since Saturday, and threshing will resume again this week, several outfits being at work today.

While there has been some discolouration, and a little sprouting in places, the damage is not so much as had been feared during the wet spell. The first killing frost took place on the morning of the 20th, when the thermometer dropped to 21°.

Main Highway To Be Improved

H. H. Montzambert, Government engineer, with three men, arrived here at the beginning of this week. For the next two months they will be engaged in surveying the Calgary-Medicine Hat highway in preparation for grading next spring. The widening of the road will be carried on from the point where work stopped this summer at Inverlake to near Namaka.

This is part of the scheme of main highway improvement, part of the funds of which are supplied by the Dominion government and part by the Provincial Government.

Mr. Montzambert is accompanied by his wife, who will also make her residence in Strathmore during the progress of the work.

PEST EXPERTS TO MEET HERE

Farm pest experts will hold their 1926 conference at Lethbridge, Alberta, according to the decision at the meeting of the international crop pest committee recently. The provinces, provinces, and the states of North Dakota, Montana, Wisconsin and Minnesota will be represented. H. L. Seaman, Dominion government entomologist and the experimental farm at Lethbridge, is secretary of the committee.

School Fair Prize List

The School Fair Held Last Week Was Unquestionably in All Respects, The Best Held in This District

One of the most interesting features of last Tuesday's School Fair was the parade in which the following schools participated: Birta Vale, Harwood, Carlsland, Crowfoot, Herby, Namaka, Orange Valley, Strathmore. This is only the second year in which the parade was attempted, but it is undoubtedly a very attractive feature of the fair. Mr. Buchanan has given some very helpful suggestions as to how this feature may be improved on. We hope to profit by these suggestions next year.

After the parade the physical drill contest was held in the school grounds, and a mile race and pony race took place. There should certainly be more teams entered in the P. T. contest.

In most of the classes in agriculture and school work there were a goodly number of entries and competition was keen. In some cases, however, there were more prizes offered than there were entries.

Owing to unavoidable lateness of one of the judges, many people did not get the opportunity to properly view the exhibits.

As is the case after all fairs, reports of unfair work, etc., are abroad. We wish to assure all concerned that the Executive is absolutely sincere in its desire to eliminate dishonesty of any kind from the School Fair. At the present time complaints are being investigated. It must be remembered, however, that some of these cases of alleged unfairness are due to mis-understanding.

The sincere thanks of the Association are due to the Town Band for their services in leading the parade and playing on the school grounds. Mr. Freeman for his fine display of flowers, to the C.P.R. for the loan of tent and lumber, to Tom Chamberlain for his splendid work in disposing of so many tags, and to all those who, by their donations and co-operation, have contributed in making the Strathmore and District School Fair the great success which it was conceded to be by all the judges.

The following list of prize-winners is subject to change pending the decision of the investigating committee:

Judges Enthusiastic About School Fair

Organiser Congratulates Pupils And Teachers On Exhibition

Mr. W. S. Dean, School Fair Organizer, sends us for publication the following criticism of Strathmore and District School Fair, held last Tuesday.

Because the fair was so big and the competition so keen, the judges were denied the privilege to speak to the children and parents and are therefore taking this opportunity to comment on the splendid exhibition. The excellence of whose various features they have not seen yet this season and probably will not.

Practically the whole long list of over 150 classes was well filled. The outstanding class was cooking, sewing, flowers and school work. This large entry of sewing and cooking especially would do credit to adult exhibitions. The children used excellent judgment in the selection and preparation of exhibits, although, in the vegetable and flower sections some samples were off type or not grown from seed distributed by the department of Agriculture. The rules concerning honesty and fairness in exhibiting must be observed absolutely. Children and parents should read the school fair bulletin thoroughly to find out what is expected in this respect. This was noticeable in the livestock selection. Bacon hogs were off type and out of condition as were colts and beef calves, but a very good class of poultry was shown. The colts had not been handled sufficiently. The object of the class is being defeated for we are expending money to teach the boys and girls the lesson of training and caring for stock and selecting good types, for they, thus, put a greater grasp of things agricultural.

The parade deserves special mention as it gave evidence of originality and great care and preparation on the part of the teachers and children.

Splendid Spirit
An exhibition of flowers and vegetables, contributed by the C. P. R. demonstration farm added greatly to the attractiveness of the fair. Probably the best and most significant feature of the whole fair was the splendid spirit of the teachers, the children and the community. This spirit of co-operation in wholesome friendly rivalry, will bring towns and country together, to make a greater community. Good credit must be given to the fair board generally and to the staff of the Strathmore school in particular, who have carried out this splendid program with success, and credit to the town and district, and have made the day the biggest in the year for the children taking part.

The fair board has built up a splendid institution in the school fair, and it is to be regretted that a number of rural school districts did not give more support. It is an institution which is educational in all its features, and concerns itself with the best elements in the community—the boys and girls. Every citizen in the community owes his whole hearted allegiance to the fair, as one of the best organizations promoting community welfare.

Big things are predicted for the future of Strathmore School Fair.

Baintree

Mr. Fenton Smith, of South Bend, Washington, is paying his annual visit to Baintree, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMillan. Mr. Smith, who is the owner of the farm occupied by Mr. John Horne, is delighted with the prospects of the district. He brings with him messages of good will from Fenton Jr., and his wife, who lived here for a number of years, and whom you must all remember with pleasure.

Mrs. McElbott has returned from Calgary considerably improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horne's little boy is now receiving medical treatment in Calgary.

The snow storms that raged on the morning of the 14th were received by many farmers in much the same spirit as Mutt accepted a dose of the toothache.

The remarks which Mr. Meighan and Mr. King are now throwing at one another, make a commendable argument over their inability to express themselves in a forcible way. Maybe they are in earnest, but if they are, they are of little living in the west could enrich their language with more picturesque words than "feeble" and "futile." Yes sir, any guy who ever drove horses when the flies were bad, who got left with a threshing outfit on his hands during a long spell of wet weather, could put both "Bill" and "Art" to the woods while the cat was eating its breakfast.

If the "road to Mandalay" ain't any smoother than the way to Baintree, may a special providence take care of those who follow that route to the far east. Compassion must also be felt for the poor flying fishes, for their sport must often be disturbed by the sound of vehement language. During the past week however, one very grave menace to public safety has been removed from the district. The hillside on the south bank of the creek has been thoroughly gone over, and is now perfectly safe for either brazier or grain tanks. The residents of the community have reason to be grateful to Mr. Wm. McMillan, who in a neighborly spirit, gave his time and advice in the service of the cause. Billy has a great reputation in the neighborhood as a particularly good builder, and this particular job is a striking example of what skill and experience can accomplish.

By the way, gent, we cannot refrain from passing on to you this piece of information which some day may help you in an emergency. Less than a week ago the owner of a Ford ran into a bad rut and wrenched a wheel. Then he threw up his hands in despair, and then weep over his misfortune! No sir, not a bit of it; he was a different kind of a bird. Walking into a nearby yard, he picked up an old wheel which used to do villain service on a sulky plow. This he latched onto the bus, and when he gave his pet a little juice the nimble "Lizzy" danced away as if it had the whole world by the beard. The performance made us very strong for this particular breed of the "horseless carriage," and although "next year" and quite here yet, the words of the ancient Chinese philosopher express our sentiment: "Hope springs in the desert, takes root in the sands of the sea, and blooms on the bough of every thorn bush."

The following lines were written after seeing a pair of youngsters making their way in the face of a storm. The elder of the pair was endeavoring to protect his companion from the blast, and with words of comfort, sought to cheer the little fellow along:

If the day be kinder gloomy,
And the outlook bleak as 'em,
When the shadows menace round you
To beguile away your vine;
Don't give up and be a piker,
Though yer weary, tired, an' lame;
Stop yer crying, drop yer sighing,
Brace up kid, an' play the game.

Lot o' fellers pack a burden,
But oft smile beneath their cross;
Lots of guys have met disaster,
And retrieved the bitter loss;
Keep a plugging little gal,
Through the mire an' rain,
Till the sky, so dark an' dreary,
Gleams an' sparkles once again.

Badger Bites Boy

Correspondent Sends Account of Unusual Attack.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Dongen north of Strathmore, a little over two years old, had run off to the barn, which is situated about 150 yards from the house, and was playing with the sliding door, when, becoming aroused by his cries, the mother ran out to discover the cause. She saw the child lying flat on the ground, face downwards, and something tugging at his hand. She grabbed a piece of two-by-four and hurried to him, finding the child in agony with a big badger pulling at his arm with the hand beyond his wrist in its mouth. At once she dealt the badger such a blow on his back with her scuffling, that the brute rolled over, releasing his prey. Another crushing blow on the head finished Mr. Badger's earthly career and the wounded and terror-stricken boy was carried home, where his wounds were fixed up. The patient was doing well from the father's last account.

Standard Notes

Miss Kathleen Day returned to Calgary on Saturday, after spending a short holiday here. She will enter the Calgary Normal Training School next week.

Reverend and Mrs. M. Christensen, of Calgary, are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rasmussen last week.

The School Fair held in Standard on Friday last was a decided success despite the inclement weather and bad roads, and a large attendance of pupils, parents, and friends formed an interested assemblage during the judging. The exhibits from all the school districts were exceptionally fine, each class having a large number of exhibitors. All the sports were postponed owing to the bad weather, but a Sports Day is to be held on October 2, at the Chancellor Memorial Hall, when the Sunny Range and Plogreest School Districts will hold their annual School Fair. The prize list of the Standard Fair will be published at a later date.

Mrs. J. Dand, of Seattle, arrived in Standard last Monday to pay her annual visit to her farm here, and look after her business interests. Mrs. Dand is always a popular visitor to Standard. We hope her visit will be a pleasant one.

As in many other parts of the province, threshing has been held up here for another week or ten days, owing to the wet weather.

The Saturday night dances are proving very popular, one of the largest crowds of the season were in attendance last Saturday night.

COURSE IN AGRICULTURE

Attention is called to the B. Sc. Standard in Agriculture at the University of Alberta. Young men who can afford the time and cost to secure a foundational course in the University will find this new four year course worth investigating, the last two years being based somewhat on the elective system allows for quite a range of choice.

Saves $24 A Year

Cooking experts agree that the SMP Enamelled Ware Roaster will save the average Canadian family fully $24.00 a year in meat bills. The secret is, it roasts the meat with very little shrinkage. Also, it makes cheap cuts taste like the best one.

You place the roast in the roaster, put on the cover; the roaster does the rest. No basting required. Every roast is perfectly cooked.

The roaster fits snug, so that cooking odors cannot escape. Grease can't splatter out, which saves a sweet clean oven. Prices range from $7.00 to $15.00 each. Shrinkage on beef and lamb, and don't forget the saving of $24.00 yearly.

To the President, Officers, and Members of the G.W.V.A., Strathmore Branch.

Dear Sirs: I wish to express our heartfelt and deep appreciation of your loving tribute to our fallen brothers. Your efforts have been unflinching, and your beautiful Memorial stands for all your Association means, and your impressive unveiling ceremony must have filled your hearts with the satisfaction of noble deeds well done. This permanent loving tribute will be some measure of comfort to the sorrowing relatives who are far away, and who may not have the privilege of seeing it. We wish you every possible good wish for yourselves and your Association, and take this opportunity of enclosing you a cheque for fifty dollars for your "Fund of Remembrance" from George T. Berry and Son.

Again with expressions of deepest appreciation.

Yours faithfully,

yet paid their entry fees, and it will be some time before the government grant is received.

We cannot urge too strongly on teachers and pupils that now is the time to begin preparations for next year's School Fair. If this is done the chief aim of these fairs, namely, to improve the standards of school work and to increase the pupils' interest in agriculture, will be achieved.

The next big event of the year is the Sports Day on Friday, October 15th. It is hoped that every school in the district will participate.

As was the case last year this column is open for news items from all the surrounding schools.

Next Monday, September 28th, there will be a meeting of the School Fair Committee at 8 p.m. in the Strathmore School. Any cases of irregularity will be investigated and general business transacted. Anybody having complaints is invited to be present.

Letter To The Editor

Editor, Strathmore Standard, Strathmore, Alberta.

Dear Sir:
Last School Fair was certainly by far the most interesting one I have witnessed here, and the work was most creditably done.

I certainly enjoyed my visit to the limit, and spoke to several others who were of the same turn of mind, even if the inevitable "kicker" found reason for strong denunciation.

There was one thing which would have made matters much more agreeable, and have given an infinitely better chance to observe more fully what we were supposed to look at with discrimination, than a well ordered system of allowing visitors to pass through the buildings.

Had the flow of spectators at all congested points been kept moving to the right the effort would have been astonishing.

A number of signs marked "Keep to the Right" could easily have been displayed, and I feel sure that many an interested person would—like myself—have been only too anxious to give some time to see and admire the crowd to comply with the written request, thus making things go smoothly.

Yours for bigger and better school fairs in the interest of both parents and children.

George McTae has secured a lease on the hotel at Cranapple, and will take possession on October 1st.

The enrollment at the Rockyford School is about sixty. B. S. McDonald, of Wheatnace, is principal, and Mrs. George McTae has the primary department.

Three Minneapolis threshing outfits sold by the Rockyford Motors were unloaded here last week.

Threshing, which began in this neighborhood last week, was stopped by the heavy rain of Friday night. Threshers report yields ranging from twenty to thirty bushels per acre as a rule. In a few instances better yields are reported.

There is a growing demand among Rockyford residents for something better than the present alleged cross-walks, which would be a joke were it not for the fact that in wet weather they are such provoking mud holes. The village is deserving of something safe and substantial in the matter of cross-walks, while the two foot sidewalks now doing duty on some blocks should be widened at least another foot, if not two feet.

The younger crowd gave a very enjoyable dance at the town hall Friday night of last week, and despite the rain they had a good crowd. The storm compelled many who were in attendance from the country, to remain in town until next day.

The Rockyford Motors have received a large part of the equipment for the new electric light plant. It will install for public service, and in a short time street lights will be in service, and business houses also lit up from this plant. Later on the service will be extended to homes.

A meeting was held in the town hall on Tuesday night in the interest of a high school for the Rockyford district, said to be badly needed. Its establishment will be a great convenience. If the plan carries, many parents now finding it necessary to send their children to Calgary for high school training.

Agent Wilson, of the C.N.E., recently so badly injured while boarding a train, is able to be out again, and has resumed his duties at the station.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Burroughs, of Topeka, Kansas, who have been here since early in July, visiting their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Langenfelder, left last Tuesday for Vancouver, enroute to their home, and will stop at several cities on the way. They report a pleasant sojourn among the hospitable people of Rockyford. Mr. Burroughs, who is owner of an extensive commercial printing house in Topeka, expressed himself as seeing a great future for this section, which he says reminds him much of the western half of Kansas, when he went to that state nearly forty years ago. Our soil is much better, he says, and with our facilities for irrigation, he believes the opportunities such that another decade will find a wonderful change for the better, both in the matter of increased population, physical improvement, and material wealth. Especially does he believe this will prove true when the larger farms are cut up and the farms confined to a section, or a section and a half, and more intensively cultivated by more families. This, he avers, has been the experience of Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, and Texas, which have no agricultural advantages over Alberta.

PRINTING Makes the World Go Round

The Standard's equipment is always up-to-date. We have recently installed some of the latest type faces to enable us to give you service.

When you have printing orders patronize the country office rather than one located in the cities or in Eastern Canada.

You keep your money at home, and you are more likely to get a job that suits you, as we know the local conditions. Our price will suit you too.

We can't talk as well as some of the visiting salesmen, but we can print. Talking is the salesman's specialty. Printing is ours.

Buy at Home, or as Close to Home as You Can Buy.

OUR POLITICAL POLICY

In the forthcoming Dominion Election, as in former elections, the policy of the Standard will be to give an impartial account of the election activities, meetings, etc., of each candidate. The Standard is an independent newspaper, and our editorial views will be presented from that stand point. Apart from reports of meetings, our space will be at the disposal of all parties for announcement of meetings, propaganda, etc., at card rates.

SHOWING THE BLACK SIDE

Last Monday a party of British Journalists visited Strathmore, this being one of the points in an itinerary designed to show them conditions as they really are in Canada, and offset stories that have been published in Britain with regard to local conditions.

A visit of this kind is well worth while, and will have beneficial results. Leading some of our Alberta daily papers during the last few months leads one to believe that a visit of Canadian daily newspapermen to Britain is as necessary as a visit of British newspapermen to Canada.

It would seem as if the news that is featured deals with conditions in Great Britain from the worst angle. Strikes, unrest, communism, etc. are given a great deal more space than their importance deserves, and while part of the blame attaches to the correspondent, more attaches to the editorial management.

The weekly newspaper editors who visited Britain last year were surprised to find conditions very much better than what they had imagined as a result of the news reports.

One can imagine the British papers devoting their reports on Canadian matters to the labour troubles at Cape Breton and Drumheller, the reported exodus of thousands of Canadians to the States, the fact that snow blanketed a large area of Alberta on September 16th, and that not a bushel of grain has been threshed for the past three weeks on account of weather conditions. That would be bad publicity for Canada, and would have the object of deterring the immigration of people and capital which we so much desire.

It is never a good thing to emphasize the dark side of things. There is always lots of good news to publish, and while it does not pay to adopt an optimistic policy, and hide our heads in the sand, yet there is no reason why the unpleasant news should be picked out and featured in streamer headlines day after day.

In the twelve months ended last June imports from Canada to Britain were valued at $295,740,698, and exports from Britain to Canada were valued at $153,456,610. If we are sincerely anxious to help the industrial situation of our best customer we can take off the tariff against British goods and help to even the trade balance, with beneficial results both to ourselves and the Motherland.

The fact that Great Britain is able to maintain her purchases from Canada, in face of the tariff obstacles we have placed in the way of entrance of British goods is a better indication of the actual economic conditions in Britain than anything else.

If Britain was unable to raise the money to purchase our wheat, Western Canada would be in a very serious condition. Good business in Britain means good business here.

Mr. Pawkes has purchased the house formerly owned by Mrs. Taylor, and is doing some improvements on the premises.

Mr. Jack Angus, on Monday, the 21st inst. for Calgary, where he will attend Normal.

HEALING THE WOUNDS OF WAR

There was engendered much cruelty and ill feeling, but there were some contrary experiences. One of these is recounted in a recent issue of the "Rothsay (Scotland) Express," as follows:

"Miss Hamilton, matron of the Casual Sick House, has returned from a holiday in Germany, which has an interesting story attached to it. Prior to coming here, she was district nurse in Ravenshoe for some years and during the period of hostilities was in the vicinity of a war prisoners' camp. An epidemic of influenza broke out which carried off a number of the German prisoners, and the doctor of the district, along with Miss Hamilton, had much to do in tending the sick prisoners, and clearing up the personal affairs of those who died. The relatives of some of them remembered this and so the doctor and his wife, Miss Hamilton, and her sister were treated by them to a holiday in the Fatherland. The journey across was made from Croydon to Berlin by aeroplane, returning the same way, and the party had about ten days in Germany. Some of the Germans have announced their intention of visiting Rothsay next summer."

Namaka Notes

"Hilly Day," a combined service will be held on Sunday next, September 27th, at 11 a.m.

Special music, and address. All come.

Mrs. H. E. Thomson, accompanied by her son James, left for Minden, Nebraska, where James will continue his studies in the 12th grade.

Threshing in this district is still tied up owing to the continued wet weather.

The Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Johnson on Thursday, October 1st.

The school children, together with a number of parents, attended the School Fair at Strathmore on Tuesday. All report having a splendid time; some of the children winning prizes.

Mr. Nowicki, section foreman, and family left the beginning of the week for Cluny, where they will reside.

Some of Calgary's citizens took advantage of the first day's shooting; carrying away with them a nice bunch of mallards. The wild geese are now honking in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watts were the recipients of a beautiful box of community silverware in honor of their recent marriage.

Mrs. Lewenden called on Namaka friends during the week.

Fanny Fleetfoot Helps Herself

HE WHO RUNS MAY READ.
The above pictures were taken near Lake Louise by a member of the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies during the recent Ride and Pow-wow. According to the photographer's version of the story the deer walked deliberately up to the sign-board, read the notice and, after snorting contemptuously proceeded to feast himself upon the forbidden flowers with all the gusto of a lumber-jack attacking a plate of ham-and-eggs. It was, he said, a wilful piece of law-breaking, committed in cold blood and with malice aforethought solely intended to show a disgraceful disrespect for constituted authority and the decrees of the Lords of Creation.

"CATHER YE ROSE BUDS WHILE YE MAY."
The pretty flowers attracted her attention and she started to collect a few to take to her dear old grandmother who was sick in bed at home. After she had innocently gathered a mouthful of the tempting blossoms, declares this witness, the doe suddenly came across the notice board, studied it for a moment and immediately returned the flowers to where she had picked them.

Although it is understood that the local police are investigating, it is doubtful if the truth of the matter will ever be fully known. In the meantime, however, we hope that all right thinking Christian people will give the dear little deer a dose of whatever it is, the benefit of the doubt. There is incidentally no truth in the rumour that a collection is being taken up at Banff to cover the costs of her, or his or its defence.

Slats' Diary

Friday—Pa says mubby they are a chance that I will get a job at the noose paper office nex summer when shoot is left out. He says at the kid they have got there now don't pay en-ty tension to what nobody tells him an
that he never listens
when you show him
how to do nothing. Pa says he don't even lis-sen when he is talkin'
ing to his self.

Saturday—well I goes
if we keep on a learning Ant Emu why she will get wise to a few things I of these days mubby, at the Super table this evening got was telling a story he had red about a English bar maid and Ant Emu had never see till then but what a Bar maid was a feminine loyer.

Sunday—Mrs. Gillem is very sore at her self to becu she was a Patient her pitcher tuk by the foratogier yesterday and after she had had it tuk she happened to remember that she had forgot to talk her hair. I don't see why she would forget to talk her Bath on a Saturday.

Monday—Blisterer Pa says he has get a new evening to get a Patient on (I) and if he does he will mark about a million I mubby and Blisterer says if he does he is going to by uniforms for are have half 9 next summer and mubby each guy will get a new ford for every Home run. The even-tion is a rubber band to put around the edge of a sweater so you wont make yure teeth when you drink coffee on it.

Tuesday—Pa has got into the notion of having a pitcher tuk of his self. He says he never has had a Pro-fite tuk and that is what he wants. Ma says that wont work, for if he sets side why his car will be hid from you can tell what the pitcher was ment for.

Wednesday—Ant Emu says times has changed into since she was a Patient lady, she says the girls use to look in a mirror on Holloween to see who there husband was to be. Now they look in Dun and Brad 8th, where ever that is.

Thursday—Over at Hillies bording house, they don't have any fox on the Bath rm. doors. Mrs. Hill says they buddy sing in the bath rm. so why spend money for a lock.
